

International Migrants Day 2018 Festival

International Migrants Day is created in memory of the adoption of the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families by the UN on On 18 December 1990. We urge the Japanese government to ratify the convention as soon as possible.

Program

Section 1 Global Compact for Migration

The Global Compact for Migration (GCM) is the first-ever UN global agreement on a common approach to international migration in all its dimensions. It is going to be adopted in this December. First, let's get to know more about GCM!

Speaker: Ms. Mio SATO, IOM Chief of Mission in Japan

Section 2 Group Workshop

With the theme "であい(to meet)", this engaging workshop aims in providing a platform for participants who are living in the Japanese society to know more about each other and thus connect with each other.
